

Ballad of Jed Clampett

Tonalité G, Accordage standard (gDGBD)

Come and (G)listen to a story 'bout a (Am)man named (D)Jed
(D)Poor mountaineer barely (G)kept his family fed
(G)Then one day he was (C)shooting for some (C#)food,
And (D)up through the ground come a bubbling (G)crude [Oil that is, black gold, Texas tea]

Well the (G)first thing you know old (Am)Jed's a millio(D)naire
(D)Kin folk said Jed (G)move away from there
(G)Said California is the (C)place you oughta (C#)be
So they (D)loaded up the truck and they moved to Bever(G)ly
[Hills that is, swimming pools, movie stars]

Well (G)now it's time to say goodbye to (Am)Jed and all his (D)kin (D)They would like to thank you folks for (G)kindly dropping in You're (G)all invited back again to (C)this locali(C#)ty
To (D)have a heaping helping of their hospitali(G)ty
[Beverly Hillbillies, that's what they call 'em now,
Nice folks Y'all come back now, ya hear?]
